

We had a very exciting visit from the Mayor of Hounslow this week and the children were thrilled to see him in his robes and chains. Mayor Siddhu came to unveil the beautiful mosaic which has been installed to celebrate Ms Scott's retirement as headteacher. It was created by artist Kim Porrelli together with a talented team of children, and made possible by Marion and her team at the Hounslow Senior Citizens Trust. We had a lovely tea party after the unveiling; thank you to Ms Moses for organising it all.

Please remember to sign up for free to Easyfundraising at <http://efraising.org/Gok9FgV6j8>. Through this fundraising page, a donation is made every time you shop at many online retailers and this will help us make sure we have plenty of resources for our OPAL programme. Finally, an INSET day has been planned for Friday October 21st and school will be closed to children on this day.

Amelia, Hayajji, Voshkie from year 5 and Leia, Aaryahi and Jude from year 4 attended a fabulous and fun poetry workshop today with the poet Joshua Seigal, who read some of his poetry with the children joining in. He also answered many questions on why he became a poet and where he found his inspiration for writing. We have all been inspired to read and write more poetry in the future.

Chrissie has been coming into school on a regular basis and is enjoying going to visit classes. She sat in an English class in Year 6, where Mrs Grewal and the children read their descriptive writings to her! Her favourite place to go is Sunshine Class where she gets to play with a small group of children, who all love to see her and feed her treats.

Reception children have been coming in small groups to the office to see her with Ms Hart. They are learning what commands to use and how to behave around her.

During the Summer Holiday, Chrissie and Jude visited Sidmouth in Devon and even went to the theatre, they were lucky enough to sit on the stage, while the set was being painted!

Do we achieve more when there is competition?

In the news this week

The popular dance competition, Strictly Come Dancing, has returned to TV screens. The 20th series of the competition has the show's largest ever line-up of professional dancers. Fifteen celebrities are competing for the glitterball this year, including presenters Kym Marsh and Helen Skelton, former footballer Tony Adams, Paralympic gold medalist Ellie Simmonds, EastEnders actor James Bye and singer Matt Goss.
