A Week of Fun and Firsts!

It's been a week full of excitement and new beginnings at school. Children met their new teachers as they start the exciting transition to their next year group, and we were delighted to welcome our new Reception families for a stay-and-play session. What a lovely start to their school journey!

Many year groups also had the chance to enjoy a golfing session just down the road. For some, it was their first time trying the sport, and they absolutely loved it.

Today, we held the first of our inaugural Colour Runs for Years R-3, and what an event it was! While school is always a happy place, it was incredible to see such pure joy on every child's face. The adults may have enjoyed it just as much! A huge thank you to Ms. Moses for organising such a brilliant event, and to the site team and all staff for their support. We can't wait for Years 4-6 to take part next week.

Don't forget, our Summer Fayre is on Monday. Please collect children at 1:30pm. They Fayre starts 2:30pm. It's also mufti day (except Year 5). Cake donations welcome from all year groups!

EXCELERATOR

Bonjour. Cette semaine, les élèves de Y3 et Y4 ont célébré la culture française lors de leur après-midi français. Ils ont joué à des jeux, chanté des chansons et goûté de délicieux plats français. Merci beaucoup pour tous vos dons.

Year 3 celebrated French day with mime and poetry. Green Class wrote a poem as a class and then individually. We hope you enjoy some of the ones they have shared.

Walking through Paris

Strolling through Paris, smells all around,
Melting fromage, fresh baked croissants,
Hungry tummies.
Blue, White and Red, flags waving in the air
The smile of the Mona Lisa in the faces of people.

“Bonjour”, “Salut”, “Ca va?”

The Eiffel Tower rises above the city
Mime artists pulling ropes, stuck in a box.
Waving trees swaying and whispering
“Au Revoir”.

By Green Class

When I walk in France I see
The Eiffel Tower
Next I see French flags
Then I eat croissants
Before I go to see the art.

Walking to the Shop
Walking through France
I can smell the yummy cheese
That melts like water
The red and blue, white, in the sky
A giant smile from the sun to the Mona Lisa
But I'm just walking through France
I can see the shiny French flags in the sky
And on the roads, everywhere I go I see lots
The city smells good
I walked to the shop.
